COURT ACTION
PROPOSED FOR COAL DISPUTEGOVERNMENT PUTS MORE CURBS ON RAIL TRAFFIC

BY HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Soft coal operators today appealed to John L. Lewis to end the mine shut down and offered to negotiate on his demand for miners' pensions.

The pension demand is the key to the dispute that touched off the five-day-old walkout, which already has forced a cutback in rail and steel operations.

Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the major operators, said they wanted to sit down with Lewis and talk over the pension dispute. But he made it clear they would not move until he sent the 350,000 idle miners back to work.

Whether the current walkout is a breach of contract is subject to legal interpretation. But the mine owners are known to have looked into every possibility of pinning their market losses of the past five days on the Lewis union.

The United Mine Workers chief said the operators had "dishonored" their contract by not agreeing to his demand for a $100 monthly pension for miners over 60 years of age and with 20 years' service.

Industry At Standstill
He called on his miners last Friday to consider the pension question at local meetings. On Monday the men began staying away from work in large numbers. By today the industry was virtually at a standstill.

Besides the loss of coal production, steel mills and railroads were quickly slowed down.

A 25 per cent cut in coal burning passenger train service, effective Sunday, was ordered yesterday. That step will affect about 11 per cent of all passenger trains.

Government officials who said a curtailment of freight service was in prospect declined to go into details.

Head of UAW Says
Henry Wallace Is Just A Plain Dope

Memphis, Tenn., March 19 (AP)—Henry Wallace was characterized as a "plain, everyday dope" here last night by Walter Reuther, CIO union head.

Reuther, president of the International union of automobile, aircraft and agricultural implement workers of America, was addressing members of the Memphis local.

"Henry Wallace," he said, "is being used by persons whose interests lie outside the United States. He is doing the greatest service possible to the enemies of labor."

Delayed Draft
Is Favored By
GOP Leaders

BY JACK BELL

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders seemed near agreement today on a plan to register—but delay drafting—the nation's young men for military service.

The wait-and-see proposal under study by Senators Vandenberg (Mich.) and Taft (Ohio) would call for speedy passage of laws to revive selective service in the face of stepped up Communist pressure in Europe. Selectees would be chosen and put on notice.

But Congress would not push the button for inductions unless or until: (1) voluntary enlistments continued to lag or (2) the world situation grew so grave as to call for partial or full mobilization of a citizen army.

The prime object of such a law would be to spur immediate enlistments of those subject to call, thus filling vacant ranks in line with President Truman's plea for strengthened armed forces.

This Republican answer to Mr. Truman's request for universal military training and a limited revival of selective service is known to have the enthusiastic backing of Vandenberg. He is the Senate's presiding officer and heads its foreign relations committee.

Taft told a reporter he is inclined to support the plan but has not made up his mind finally.

Meanwhile, an informal poll of the House armed services committee showed today that group probably would approve an outright draft revival at once. Fifteen out of 33 members said they favor such a step and only four listed themselves as definitely opposed.

BATTLE CREEK
HOMES FLOODED

Evacuation Of Over 1000
Families Indicated On South Side Of City

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A general flood warning was issued at Battle Creek today as 1,000 families prepared to flee their homes.

Pelting rains across the state forced streams and rivers over their banks in many places and posed the threat of a general flood.

Flooded drains backed up a foot of water into the business section of Merrill, west of Saginaw.

Frankenmuth's business district was under water which was lapping at the steps if its famed chicken dinner hotels.

Battle Creek, with 2.6 inches of rain in 12 hours, seemed hardest hit.

The Battle Creek and Kalamazoo rivers, which converge in the city, were nearing flood stage.

The municipal flood warning station ordered the entire near south side of the city to prepare for mass evacuation. Several large industries as well as 1,000 private homes are in the area.

The station said it appeared that the flood might equal the costly one of a year ago.

New Orleans, March 19 (AP)—A member of one of Ohio's most prominent families, Mark A. Hanna, III, was in New Orleans Parish prison here today on federal charges involving forgery of checks totaling $60,000.

FBI agent-in-charge Percy Wyly II, said the 39 year old man is a grandson of Mark Hanna, Republican senator from Ohio for many years.

Hanna was arrested yesterday at a local hotel where he was registered under the name of Mark Harrington. He had $10,067 cash with him.

Hanna was charged in Buffalo with violating the national stolen property act which prohibits taking a worthless check from one state to another.

PAY RAISES UP
IN LEGISLATURE

Solons Oppose Proposal
For Civil Service
Salary Fixing

Lansing, March 19 (AP)—Deep-seated antagonism of legislators toward the Civil Service commission today was threatening to stifle a proposal to let the commission set legislators' salaries.

The proposal was made by Rep. John P. Espie (R-Eagle), House Ways and Means committee chairman, as an alternate to Governor Sigler's plan to let the legislators set their own pay.

Espie said he thought his plan would be more palatable to the voters who would have to amend the constitution to put either proposal into effect.

Before leaving for a weekend recess, many legislators recorded themselves as opposed to Espie's plan.

Typical was the comment of Rep. A. P. Decker (A-Deckererville) who declared, "I can't see this at all. We've already given the commission too many of our functions."

Moreover, Governor Sigler is strongly opposed to substituting his original plan. He commented, "It's about time the representatives of the people decide on some of these things for themselves."

Communist Chosen
Foreign Minister

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 19 (AP)—The Prague radio announced today that Vlado Clementis, a Communist, has been appointed foreign minister of Czechoslovakia.

Clementis, who had been the No. 2 man in the foreign ministry, succeeded Jan Masaryk, who died in a plunge from his apartment in the foreign office building March 10.

The new foreign minister, a Slovak, had been secretary of state for foreign affairs and had been Masaryk's chief assistant for several years. He is a lawyer, 46 years old.

The Prague radio broadcast said the offices of foreign minister and secretary of state are being combined and that Clementis will fill both posts.

GREECE FEARS
AN ATTACK BY RED BRIGADESCANDINAVIA JOINS LINEUP AGAINST COMMUNISM

(By The Associated Press)

Scandinavian leaders joined the western European lineup against communism today. Premiers of Norway, Sweden and Denmark took their stand while delegates in Finland, to the east, got last-minute instructions for Moscow negotiations toward a Soviet-Finnish treaty.

The Communists were accused at the same time of having a five-nation committee working on Italy, where an election is scheduled April 18, and on France. They also were charged with having an international brigade ready to attack Greece.

The Moscow radio said today President Truman's preparedness speech to Congress Wednesday and the five-power Brussels pact signed that day favor American imperialists and militarists.

Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi said the nine-nation Communist international information bureau (Cominform) has a special five-nation secret committee to "issue directives to synchronize the conduct of Communists in Italy and France."

He made the statement in an outdoor speech in Bologna. It opened his Christian Democratic party's campaign in Italy's Communist north.

De Gasperi said the committee met first in Poland last September shortly before the Cominform was organized there. He said it includes Col. Gen. Andrei A. Zhdanov, Russian Communist secretary general; Luigi Longo, Italian vice secretary general; Romanian Foreign Minister Anna Pauker; Jacques Duclos of France; and Milovan Djilas of Yugoslavia.

Official dispatches to Washington from Athens, the U. S. state department said yesterday, estimate that three divisions, or 30,000 men, are in an international brigade near the Greek border in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria.

The department said the men are believed to be mostly Albanians and Greeks with overall Russian military direction, though no Soviet tactical officers. It said an attack is thought most likely from Albania.

Chicago, March 19 (AP)—At least four persons were reported killed and several scores were injured today when tornadoes and high winds swept across five states.

The wind-raked sections of Illinois, Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Hartest hit appeared to be south central Illinois, where small tornadoes struck several communities. Two persons were reported killed at Gillespie and two killed and 35 reported injured at Fosterburg.

The Red Cross midwestern office said it had reports 80 per cent of the town of Bunker Hill, Ill., 40 miles northeast of St. Louis, was leveled. Bunker Hill has a population of 1,500. Field kitchens for 1,000 persons were being dispatched from St. Louis.

All available ambulances in the Alton area were pressed into service. The Red Cross said 50 persons were injured there.

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Rep. O'Toole (D-NY) urged today that this government take the lead in guaranteeing the future safety of Pope Pius XII.

Commenting on the possibility of a change occurring in the Italian government after the April elections, O'Toole said in a statement, "A terrible fear has been placed in the hearts of more than 25,000,000 Roman Catholics."

PIPELINE BLAST

Little Inch Explosion
In Indiana Blackens
15-Acre Area

Petersburg, Ind., March 19 (AP)—An explosion that ripped the "Little Inch" pipeline last night set off a fire that seared a 15-acre area and destroyed two houses. No one was injured. The cause of the blast had not been determined.

Natural gas escaping under pressure from the broken pipe-line burned for more than two hours with a glare seen at least 30 miles away.

Occupants of houses which were destroyed were absent. Two barns also were burned. State police said the closest witness they could find was a quarter of a mile away at the time of the blast.

The scene of the explosion is near Winslow in southern Pike county, about 50 miles northeast of Evansville.

State police said the explosion tore a hole in the ground 50 feet long and 20 feet wide and hurled fragments of pipe 300 feet. Rain aided firemen from Petersburg, Winslow and Oakland City in checking the spreading flames.

Fact-Finders Set
Time Limits For Meat Strike Quiz

Chicago, March 19 (AP)—President Truman's fact-finding board in the nationwide meat strike set a time limit of five more days for presentation of evidence by representatives of packers and the striking CIO union.

The board will hold daily joint meetings with the packers and union leaders until next Wednesday noon. Each side will be given 15 hours to present its case, including time allotted for a summation on Wednesday afternoon.

The board, investigating the work stoppage which started Tuesday morning and has slashed the nation's meat production in half, has until April 1 to submit its report to President Truman.

Director of State
Prisons Silent On Parole Board Jobs

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 19 (AP)—Garrett Heyns, director of state prisons, withheld comment today on a report that he would be named to fill a vacancy on the State Parole Board.

The report came from State Senator Perry W. Greene of Grand Rapids, who said he learned of the plans at a conference with Governor Sigler yesterday.

Recently replaced by Joseph W. Sanford as director of the State Corrections Commission, Heyns has taken a Civil Service examination for the parole board job.

Heyns said he would comment only if and when the appointment is offered him.

Desperate Chinese
Government Uses
Bombers On Rebels

Peiping, March 19 (AP)—The government today threw heavy bombers into its desperate defense of Changchun, capital of Manchuria.

Pro-government dispatches described the bombers as American-made B-24s.

The dispatches said the B-24s attacked Communists near Changchun, and also bombed the great hydroelectric plant at Hsiaoengman, near Kirin. The Reds captured both Hsiaoengman and Kirin, 70 miles east of Changchun, a few days ago, cutting off the supply of power to most government-held cities in Manchuria.

Final Senate Vote
On Income Tax Cut
Is Expected Today

BY MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Senate Republicans tied the throttle down today in a drive to pass their $4,800,000,000 (B) income tax-cutting bill by nightfall.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.), floor manager of the measure, told reporters he believes the chances for a final vote late today were good.

He based his forecast mainly on a decision by the Democratic leadership to abandon plans for offering an amendment to hold any tax cut this year to $4,000,000,000 (B). The House has already passed a measure calling for a $6,500,000,000 slash.

Senator Barkley (Ky.), the minority leader, said he intended to vote against any tax reduction. He predicted several other Democrats would follow suit.

Barkley said he believes it would be "dangerous" to cut taxes in the light of President Truman's appeal for greater American military power to protect western Europe against the spread of Communism.

Barkley declined to speculate on Republican chances to corral enough Democratic votes to override an expected presidential veto. But he did say:

"I have no doubt that a vote to sustain a veto will be larger than the vote against the bill on passage (by the Senate)."

However, Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) predicted more Democrats would vote to override a veto than when Mr. Truman successfully blocked a $4,000,000,000 tax cut bill last year. Ten Democrats lined up against the president then.

Centralia, Ill. Building
Razed By Explosion;
30 Persons Hurt

Centralia, Ill., March 19 (AP)—The known death toll mounted to five today in an explosion which destroyed a two-story brick building in downtown Centralia last night.

Two bodies were found beneath the pile of rubble by firemen early today after an all-night search. Near midnight, two bodies had been found. One woman died of injuries as she was being carried into St. Mary's hospital.

Firemen continued to search through the ruins for other bodies after reports by eye-witnesses that some persons had been trapped when the structure collapsed.

Thirty persons were injured. Ten were reported in from serious to critical condition.

The building housed a tavern and a small pool hall-tavern on the first floor and small apartments and sleeping quarters in the nine rooms on the second floor.

Chief of Police O. T. Bounds said that one man who escaped without injury from the pool hall-tavern told him that about nine men were playing cards in the rear and some of them might have been trapped.

More than 50 firemen, including several from nearby Southern Illinois communities, dug through the rubble in the search for additional bodies.

Pontiac Candidate,
Barred By His Age,
Appeals To Courts

Lansing, March 19 (AP)—Leann Harrelson's inability to be a candidate for the Pontiac city commission because he is only 29 years old was carried to the state supreme court today.

Harrelson asked the court for permission to appeal from an Oakland county circuit court refusal to mandamus Pontiac city officials to place his name on the city's April 5 ballot.

The young candidate told the court that the city charter required councilmen to be 30 years of age and that he would be 30 on July 10. The charter fixes the start of new councilmanic terms as the first Monday following an election.

Because of the nearness of the election, the petition will be presented to the court as soon as opposing briefs have been filed.

Turkey and Greece
Voted 275 Million
U. S. Stop-Gap Aid

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved $275,000,000 aid for Greece and Turkey.

Senator George (D-Ga.) told a reporter that the 13 senators lined up unanimously for the full amount President Truman asked for the Greeks and Turks.

George said the committee then began a closed-door discussion of the proposed $570,000,000 aid for China.

SENDING ARMS
TO REBELS

BY REGINALD L. WOOD

San Jose, Costa Rica, March 19 (AP)—Gen. Rene Picado Michalski, security (war) minister, says Costa Rica's political revolt is building into a Central American war.

Picado answered "yes" when newsmen asked him last night if the week-old rebellion by forces under Jose Figueres is going to involve all of Central America.

Four other countries already are said to be involved in Costa Rica's political quarrel.

Guatemala has been accused by Costa Rica of sending arms across the border to insurgent forces.

Nicaragua has been accused by Guatemala of sending arms across the border to insurgent forces.

(Guatemala's foreign ministry instructed its San Jose envoy last night to require Costa Rica to prove the charge, or withdraw it.)

Nicaragua has sent planes and officers to aid the government, and government forces have charged that some Nicaraguans are helping Figueres.

The government has sent Dr. Luis Anderson to Honduras to appeal for arms. Anderson, Costa Rican delegate to the Rio conference, also will seek economic aid.

At least three pilots from the Dominican Republic have arrived from Ciudad Trujillo to fly two LASCAs planes commandeered from a Pan American subsidiary Wednesday by the government.

Guatemala has denied the arms charge, although Costa Rican government officials contend that "absolute evidence" has been obtained that rifles and ammunition have been sent across the border by Guatemalan opposition elements.

France Concerned
Over Red Leanings
Of Atomic Experts

Paris, March 19 (AP)—A French defense official voiced alarm today over the Communist sympathies of atom expert Frederic Joliot-Curie, whose wife, herself a leading physicist, is held by U. S. immigration authorities.

Paul Anthonax, chairman of the French assembly's national defense committee, said he is "extremely uneasy over the fact that our atomic research is headed by Joliot-Curie, who has open Communist sympathies."

The scientist, formerly Frederic Joliot, added the Curie name when he married Irene Curie, daughter of France's famed Marie and Pierre Curie, the discoverers of radium. Her sister, Eve Curie, wrote "Madame Curie," which was made into a motion picture. Eve now is editor of Paris-Presse, conservative daily which backs De Gaulle.

AIRPORT LEASE TO BE REVISED

Rental Would Be Paid If
Net Income Exceeds
$10,000

Terms for the rental of the municipal airport by Pioneer Aviation corporation, operated by Walter Amntzen and Fred Sensiba, were discussed at length by the Escanaba city council Thursday evening. The corporation has already been granted a five-year renewal of their lease but the covenants of the contract still remain to be settled.

The aviation company did not pay any rental to the city under the terms of the lease recently expired. Tentative proposals presented to the council recently were regarded as inadequate by several of the councilmen.

Under terms of the proposal presented Thursday night, the corporation would pay no rental on the first $10,000 of net income after operating expenses, depreciation and 6% interest on capital investment. Rental of 20% would be assessed on net income over $10,000 to $15,000, 30% on net income over $15,000 to $20,000, and 50% on net income over $20,000. The corporation made a profit of $17,000 last year.

The contract also provides that the city would reimburse 20% of any loss sustained in the operation of the airport up to a maximum of $2,700, which was the annual cost to the city for operation of the airport before the aviation was leased to Pioneer Aviation.

Final settlement of the contract will be made at the next meeting of the council.

The council completed its study of insurance requirements for all city property and authorized adjustments in the amounts of insurance to be carried on each. The council voted to carry $100,000 insurance on the Harnischfeger and Delta Furniture companies building and $33,000 on the property leased by the Northern Motor Rebuilders.

John Erickson, chairman of the Escanaba housing commission, informed the council that a request has been made to the federal housing authority to reduce rents on the veterans housing projects units $10 per month per unit retroactive to Nov. 1. The federal authorities have not yet responded to the request, however.

Erickson reported that the present $25 rental was based upon utility cost estimates that were far too low. He also suggested that consideration be given to the installation of oil heaters in the units next winter to replace the present gas burners that have caused so much difficulty.

The council approved an application by Trygve Olsen, Eighth avenue south, for an S.D.M. license to sell beer and wine. An application from Mrs. Margaret Brazeau, Denver Hotel, 300 Stephenson avenue, for a Class C tourist license was referred to Chief of Police M. F. Ettenhofer.

NEW ELECTRIC CODE PLANNED

Revised Ordinance Considered By City Council

A new electrical ordinance designed to regulate and control the installation of all electric wiring in the city was approved for first reading by the city council Thursday night. The ordinance is designed to replace an existing ordinance that is deemed to be inadequate.

The ordinance provides for the creation of a board of electrical examiners comprising an inspector appointed by the superintendent of the municipal electric utility, an electrical contractor and an electrical journeyman. The board of examiners will be authorized to issue licenses after conducting examinations to determine the qualification of applicants.

A general license would cost $75 and would permit an electrical company to have five electrical journeymen in its employ. An additional license would be required for each five journeymen or fraction thereof.

A specific license to cost $25 would be provided to any firm or corporation desiring to employ an electrical journeyman to do its own work. Licenses would be renewable annually for a fee of $5.

Special permits to be issued without charge would be available to property owners desiring to do their own installation, providing such installation meets the requirements of the National Board of Underwriters.

The ordinance further requires the securing of a wiring permit for any electrical installation and inspection of such work upon completion. The ordinance does not require the payment of any fee for the issuance of permits or for the inspection of electrical work.

RAINS WEAKEN GREEN BAY ICE

Icebreaker Mackinaw Is Expected To Arrive
By End Of Month

Spring rains today helped weaken the 29-inch-thick ice on Green Bay and brought expectation that with the arrival of the U. S. C. G. icebreaker Mackinaw sometime before the end of the month the Escanaba harbor would be opened to navigation by April 1.

If the warm weather continues it is expected that iron mines on the Menominee range may start loading cars next week for rail shipment of iron ore to the C&NW docks at Escanaba. The Lake Carriers' association reports that shippers are anxious to get started with the delivery of iron ore to restore depleted supplies furnaces on the lower lakes.

Escanaba is the first harbor on the upper Great Lakes to start shipping each spring. Last year the first ore carrier arrived in Escanaba April 2, two or three days after harbor ice had been broken by the Mackinaw.

Preparatory to the opening of navigation the buoys in winter storage on the Reiss coal dock are being repainted by Coast Guardsmen stationed at Escanaba. The work is about one-half done when interrupted by the rain, said Dan Garrett, keeper of the Escanaba lighthouse.

Two members of the Escanaba lighthouse crew, MMOLc Lloyd Hulett and Coxswain Ralph Bork, have returned from Sturgeon Bay where they were stationed for the winter months.

The Minneapolis Shoal light-house crew does not expect to get to the light, located 12 miles south of Escanaba in Green Bay, before the first week in April, said Keeper Anton Jessen. The light was not put in operation last year until April 10. Other members of the Minneapolis Shoal lighthouse crew are William L. O'Hern, first assistant; Peter Scott, second assistant; and BM2c William Ernest.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Former Escanaban, Dies In Cleveland

Mrs. John Clark Kirkpatrick, a former resident of Escanaba and one-time social leader here, died at 3:30 a. m. today in Cleveland, O., where she had made her home after leaving Escanaba about seven years ago. She had been ill for several years.

Born in Alleghany, Pa., Matilda P. Patterson moved to Cleveland with her parents, and there in 1887 she married John Clark Kirkpatrick.

Shortly after their marriage they moved to Whitney, and then in 1897 they came to Escanaba. About 1906 they purchased a home at Third avenue south and Fifth street, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick lived there until she left for Cleveland. Before his death in 1922 Mr. Kirkpatrick was recognized as one of the leading industrialists in this area. He was actively identified with a number of Escanaba industries, including the Birds Eye Veneer company, Escanaba Power & Traction company, Escanaba Paper company and Delta Hotel company.

There are no immediate survivors, although several nieces and nephews of Mrs. Kirkpatrick reside in Cleveland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Kirkpatrick will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in Wade Memorial chapel, Cleveland.

SOVIET RUSSIA IS DISCUSSED

Prof. F. H. Field Lectures Here; 78 Enroll In Course

Five possible moves might be taken by the United States in its relations with Soviet Russia in this critical year, Prof. Russell H. Field of the University of Michigan's political science department said at the opening of the university extension service's lecture series here last night. Seventy-eight persons enrolled at the session held at the junior high school.

"The five possibilities," Prof. Field said, "are first, that we could go to war with Russia now, which is improbable. We could withdraw from European affairs. We could make a deal with Stalin to divide our zones of influence in Europe, but from past experience we know that promises made by dictators are not always kept. We could work through the United Nations entirely in our foreign relations, instead of working on the outside as we are now doing. And fifth, we could contain Soviet Russia within her present limits by utilizing to fullest advantage the Marshall Plan in Western Europe, the Truman doctrine of financial aid to Turkey, Greece and China, and continuing the complete occupation of Japan."

Prof. Field expressed doubt that Soviet Russia will withdraw from the United Nations, since this would leave the remaining members together as an alliance against her.

Neither the United States nor Soviet Russia want to start World War III at the present time, according to the speaker, who added that it is possible that a chain of events could lead to the outbreak of hostilities. He recalled that World War I was struck off with the mere incident of the killing of a man in Sarajevo. At present, the two "tinder boxes" in the world, Prof. Field said, are Greece and Korea.

The United States is supporting a conservative, sometimes reactionary government in Athens against Greek guerrillas aided by Soviet puppet governments to the north, Prof. Field continued. In Korea, American and Russian soldiers are facing each other at the 38th parallel, with the Communists well organized in the Russian zone and threatening to control all of Korea. Both the Greek and Korean situations are hazards to world peace, Prof. Field added.

Soviet Russia is bluffing to a great extent, Prof. Field believes, but it could happen that Stalin would go to war if necessary to prevent a loss of prestige. He said that at the present time Soviet Russia enjoys a better "power position," having the manpower and resources for a military campaign that would take its armies to the English channel within several weeks. However, the United States has the greater military potential but two or three years of preparations would be needed for America to overcome Russia's power position.

The next University of Michigan lecture will be presented on April 1.

Chapter Degree Work Saturday Evening

Delta Chapter, No. 118, R. A. M., is holding a special meeting Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple for work in the P. M. and M. E. M. degrees. A dinner, to which the ladies are invited, will be served in the dining hall at 6:30 o'clock.

National Guard Members Would Be Exempt From Selective Service, UMT

Members of Company C, 107th Engineer battalion, Delta county National Guard unit, and other federally recognized National Guard organizations in Upper Michigan and elsewhere, will be exempt from selective service and universal military training, it was announced here this morning.

The 1940 selective service law places enlisted men and officers of the National Guard in Class 1-C, making them draft exempt, and the pending military training bill exempts from service those teenage youths who are members of a federally recognized National Guard unit.

This announcement was made by Col. George C. Moran, acting adjutant general in Michigan.

24 Vacancies Here
It affects members of headquarters and service company, Marquette; Company A, Calumet; Company B, Sault Ste. Marie; and Company C, Escanaba, the four units of the 107th Engineer battalion, U. P. National Guard unit, which were federally recognized in December, 1946.

The Upper Peninsula units were among the first in Michigan to become recognized.

Present membership of the Delta county unit is 105, or 24 short of its authorized strength of 129. In addition to 24 enlisted vacancies, there are four officer vacancies in the local unit, three first lieutenant platoon commanders and one second lieutenant administrative officer.

Men 17 to 35 years of age are eligible to enlist in the Guard. Men over 35 also are eligible if they have had previous federal military service and if they can pass the physical examination.

Officer Applicants
Men who served as officers during World War II are eligible to apply for National Guard commissions, and men who were discharged from federal service in one of the top three grades of non-commissioned officers may apply for a Guard commission.

The top three grades are technical first sergeant, first sergeant and master sergeant. Maximum age limits for officer applicants are second lieutenant, 34; first lieutenant, 40; and captain, 42.

Information about enlisting in the National Guard may be procured by calling in person at the fairgrounds armory or telephoning S/Sgt. LeRoy Erickson, unit caretaker, at the armory, number 533-R. Information also may be obtained at the Army recruiting office, 1215 Ludington street.

The local unit drills from 7:30 to 9:30 each Wednesday night at the armory.

New Recruiting Plan For Army and AF In Effect Here Monday

All men enlisting in either the Army or Air Forces will be examined and accepted into the services at the Escanaba Army and Air Force recruiting station here beginning Monday, March 22, it was announced today by Major Edwin Leer, commanding officer.

Doctors William and Donald LeMire will conduct physical examinations for enlistees and Sgt. Edward Symour, mental and intelligence tests. Master Sgt. Garrett Leeman will be chief clerk in the facility.

Previously, men enlisting in the services from the Escanaba office reported to Fort Sheridan for examination and assignment. All of the Upper Peninsula will be served by this office, except the Copper Country.

Confirmation on the opening date of increased operation of the Escanaba office of the Wisconsin Recruiting district was given by Major Wayne B. Young, newly-appointed district commanding officer, yesterday.

Washington Devised Insignia
The idea of badges and insignia denoting military rank was devised by George Washington during the Revolutionary war, when his men had no uniforms, and officers needed identifying marks.

TREE PLANTING PROGRAM GROWS

City Encourages Use Of Desirable Species On Tree Strips

The approach of spring has aroused the interest of Escanaba residents in tree planting and this is being encouraged by the city with the reservation that when trees are planted on tree strips (between sidewalks and curb) a permit must first be obtained from the city forester.

Escanaba's street tree ordinance does not permit private planting on the tree strips unless a permit is first obtained from City Forester Robert Clayton, whose office is located in the city garage building. The permit is required so that the forester can consult with the prospective tree planter and advise him on suitable trees to plant, and their location on the tree strip.

Considerable progress has been made by the city in beautifying Escanaba streets and other public places through tree planting. Owners of abutting property along streets are encouraged to plant suitable species, well located, Clayton said. Persons who plant trees on the tree strip without a permit might select unsuitable species and locate them poorly unless they consult the city forester, and in the event the city ordinance provides that such trees may be removed.

If the property owner desires, the city will do the planting at the nominal cost of $8 per tree. So far this year there have been 20 such requests for planting. The trees are selected from the city's tree nursery, established in 1946, and now stocked with 2,331 trees and shrubs.

Within the past four years the city has planted a total of 216 street trees. This is in addition to other tree work, including trimming, removal of undesirable or dangerous trees, and other improvements along streets and in city parks.

Intangibles Tax Expert To Be Here Wednesday, Mar. 24

A representative of the Michigan Department of Revenue will be at the council chambers in Escanaba city hall from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Wednesday, March 24, to assist taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns, which are due not later than March 31.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, cash, postal savings accounts, notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, including war bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly to the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the legislature in 1945, all corporate stocks are 100 per cent taxable including Michigan corporations.

Persons desiring the advice or assistance of the representative of the Michigan Department of Revenue are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year, and a copy of the previous year's return filed with the department.

Despoiling Highways

THE DUMPING of garbage, ashes, tin cans, etc., along the highways on the outskirts of Escanaba presents a disgraceful sight to motorists along those roads and, of course, to the persons who reside in those areas.

Local police have reported that they will launch a vigorous enforcement campaign to eliminate this practice and it is to be hoped that they track down and nab some of the culprits who have despoiled the roadways with their trash.

Gladstone police, cooperating with state police, brought a quick halt to the dumping of garbage in the outskirts of their community as a result of a series of arrests.

There is no excuse except the slovenly excuse of laziness for the dumping of garbage along roadways. The city maintains regular garbage service for the convenience of the public and if that fails to meet the needs of any of the local residents, they can bring their rubbish to the city dumping ground rather than to strew it along the roadways.

It is a contemptible practice and the public in general will welcome vigorous enforcement of the anti-dumping regulations.

Memory Lane

HIAWATHA POST, Veterans of Foreign Wars, deserves public support of its program to establish a new "Memory Lane" on M-35 within the city limits of Escanaba as a memorial to those who sacrificed their lives in World War II.

After World War I, the Cloverland Post of the American Legion launched a successful campaign to establish a "Memory Lane" on Highway US-2-41. Today those beautiful elm trees form an attractive arch for travelers to Escanaba in memory of their war dead of the first great war.

The VFW program calls for the planting of upwards of 300 trees on both sides of South 23rd street, which coincides with M-35 within the city limits of Escanaba. The cost of planting each tree has been estimated at $5, or a total of $1,500 for the entire project. The organization seeks contributions for the project and should have little difficulty in attaining its goal.

If you have been asked to contribute and have neglected to do so, it's not too late. If you have not been asked to make a contribution to the cause, well, your donation will be gratefully received none the less.

The planting of a tree is a particularly fitting tribute to a soldier who gave his life for his country.

A Tax Upon Tax

ATTORNEY GENERAL Eugene Black, who has frequently come forth with some very peculiar suggestions regarding new legislation, recently proposed that the sales tax law be amended so that retail merchants would be required to pay 3% tax on their gross receipts, including the money now collected by them from their customers in sales tax.

In effect, this would mean that retailers would pay 3% of the $1.03 now collected from customers in payment of a $1 purchase. Black figures the amendment would yield $5,500,000 additional revenue per year.

Apparently the fact that this would result in a tax upon a tax does not trouble Mr. Black in the least. His suggestion would serve to increase the percentage of sales taxes now assessed on retail purchases in Michigan but without giving the outward appearance of such an increase. In other words it is an effort to sugarcoat a tax boost that could never be approved directly.

Governor Sigler has wisely rejected the attorney general's suggestion, correctly branding it an unfair tax upon tax.

How would such a tax increase, if one were voted, actually operate? Certainly the retailers would not pay the $5,500,000 out of their own pockets and there is no legitimate reason why they should. In all probability they would merely increase their prices to cover the added cost.

Moreover, the proposed boost in sales taxes would not be fully beneficial to the state. A substantial part of the increase would be diverted to the schools, the cities and townships as a result of the sales tax diversion amendment.

Obviously the state must look for better means of solving its financial problem than this one.

A Grim Picture

PRESIDENT TRUMAN presented a grim picture of world affairs in a radio address to the American people Wednesday noon. He pointed an accusing finger at Soviet Russia for frustrating the efforts of the United Nations to establish a just peace for the world and called attention to the gathering clouds of war in Europe and elsewhere.

The president's review of the status of world conditions did not contain any information with which the American people were not already familiar. He referred to the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, the Kremlin's pressure on Finland and the uneasiness prevalent in all of Scandinavia, the Communist supported military revolt in Greece and the vigorous campaign of the Communist party in Italy to connection with the approaching national Italian election.

Mr. Truman's outline of these developments served as a prelude to the presentation of his recommendations for American action in meeting the problem. Two of the recommendations—adoption of the European recovery program and universal military training—have been proposed by the president on numerous occasions, but the third, temporary reinstatement of the draft law, came as an unexpected development.

The keystone of American foreign policy in the face of Communistic pressure abroad is, of course, the American program of assistance to democratic nations. This measure has already passed the Senate and adoption in substantially its present form seems assured in the House.

The military phases of the president's program, however, are not so generously supported. The American people traditionally dislike the thought of military conscription in peacetime. If the war clouds continue to gather, of course, we shall have no choice except to move towards substantial strengthening of our military forces. This probably would necessitate some form of military draft, at least on a temporary basis.

The greatest need at the moment is the rebuilding of our air strength. Air power is certain to be the most dominant factor in any war of the foreseeable future.

Other Editorial Comments

ROAD BUILDING DILEMMA

(Washington Star)

A dilemma is a choice between unsatisfactory alternatives. That is the situation regarding the much-publicized road program. There is no question that modern life requires a first-class system of major roads linking large cities and regional industries. A secondary system is needed to connect smaller cities. The third part of this nation-wide problem is a modernized network to connect farms with market centers.

The blueprint plans are well advanced. The federal government offers the terms whereby states and counties can take advantage of federal funds. States and municipalities have made comprehensive surveys. But a log jam has developed and the key log of the situation is the familiar one of high costs. This is not to say that construction has not gotten under way. In 1947, a healthy total of $900,000,000 was awarded in contracts. That constitutes an all-time record for the United States, $150,000,000 more than in 1946.

No doubt 1948 totals in dollar expenditures will exceed those of 1947, but road contractors have warned official agencies that high costs of machinery, materials and labor will hold down the mileage of new roads and the repair of older highways. Contrary to opinions expressed when cement and macadam highways were being built in the 1920s and 1930s, engineers have proved the life expectancy of a modern road is less than a generation of human life. Roads wear out under the terrific impact of heavy trucks and speeding cars. There is no question that billions of dollars must be spent in the next decade if we are to have the system of roads needed for efficient business and for the national defense. The needs will help keep the wheels of industry turning and furnish hundreds of thousands of jobs. But the 2,000 contracting firms that do our road building are telling us that our money will not go so far as it did a few years ago.

FAT SALVAGE IS DECLINING

(Milwaukee Journal)

American housewives are again being urged to save and sell their waste fats. Only if they do so, it is stated, will soaps be available in sufficient quantity. These fats bring the housewife 9c a pound.

Those who have continued their salvage efforts to the present are to be congratulated for their thoroughness. Those who have discontinued the saving because they have thought it no longer of vital importance should be willing again to assume the job of saving, for only if they do will a new soap shortage be avoided.

Take My Word For It

Frank Colby

WHAT'S THE ORIGIN

Hawthorne: It is my theory that the word wizard is derived from combining the letters "w" and "z" used to be pronounced "izzard." What is your opinion?—C. W. K.

Answer: Sorry, but the word wizard evolved from the Middle English word wyrd, from wys, "wise," plus -ard, a suffix as in coward, drunkard. The original meaning of wyrd or wizard was "one who pretends to be wise"; hence, a magician, or so-called "wise man." This original meaning is admirably illustrated by the wizard in Baum's book The Wonderful Wizard of Oz—the Wizard was unmasked by Dorothy; whereupon he admitted that he just an ordinary little man with no magic powers whatever.

Q. The call "ahoy!" would seem to have an interesting origin. Can you tell us about it, please?—W. F. A.

Answer: It is from "hoi!" an old exclamation (possibly from the Dutch hui) used in calling attention, or in calling or driving domestic animals. In nautical usage, ahoy is a call used in hailing.

This brings to mind another word—holler—both noun and verb. Holler evolved

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—The first job of campaign mud is here on my desk. It is a book called "Missouri Waltz," to be published early in April. On the cover is a convict photograph of the late "Boss" Tom Pendergast of Kansas City with the number assigned to him when he went into Leavenworth penitentiary.

Childs

There is nothing very new that can be told about Harry S. Truman's relationship with the Pendergast machine which, in the final phase, became so vicious and corrupt. But it can be dressed up again for campaign purposes, just as the Moscow radio is dressing up the wicked spectre of bossism linked to corrupt capitalism for the purposes of another kind of campaign.

If a time ever called for self-restraint, that time is now. The Republicans, with a little sober reflection, will surely realize that they can afford self-restraint.

TRUMAN'S DEFEAT ASSURED

They can afford it because Mr. Truman's defeat is assured. Two factors alone would have assured his defeat—one the defection of the right in the southern states, and the other the splitting off of the extreme left with Henry Wallace and the Communist manipulators. Many other causes are at work but there is little point in discussing them.

We are living in a perilous interregnum. It will endure for more than nine months. Mr. Truman might have decided at some point after November, 1946, to demonstrate the inherent weakness of our constitutional system by resigning in favor of a Republican, which would have been perfectly possible and legal under the constitution.

He apparently never seriously considered that course, taking even the suggestion as a slur on his courage and integrity. So we see him standing before a Congress that has repeatedly ignored and repudiated him. The vote of no confidence in November, 1946, has echoed again and again in Congress, and the world knows it as well as we do here at home.

Self-restraint is, to be sure, a rare virtue. The temptation at this point to dance on the corpse of the Democratic party is understandable. This kind of interregnum invites the excesses of victory, and the Republican regulars have waited a long time.

HOOVER IN SAME TRAP

After 1930, poor Herbert Hoover was caught in the same trap. In my opinion he never even approached an adequate plan for curing and checking the depression. But if he had had the most perfect and far-reaching plan in the world, the Democrats riding high in the House would have thrown it out. And one of the rebels was John Nance Garner, who has today become such a hero of the ultra-conservatives.

In 1931, the crisis of depression threatened the entire nation. Banks and factories were shutting down and food was rotting on the farms while millions were hungry. The crisis this time is, if anything, more grave. It is the threat of a war that might be avoided by steady, firm resolution and a broad show of unity. It can cost infinitely more in precious lives and treasure than the last holocaust.

Restraint is needed above all to stop the warfare now going on between the executive and legislative branches of the government. The Republican invasion of private and confidential functions of the executive branch is producing chaos. This is not government, this business of deliberately pillorying conscientious public servants and demanding access to private documents. It is anarchy.

SELF-RESTRAINT NEEDED

The dark threat across the world should be enough in itself to induce a reasonable self-restraint. But there is another consideration which, while less important, has a bearing on our conduct at this time.

From the screams of outraged virtue that rise up, one would think Mr. Truman was the first product of machine politics in the United States. You get the strange impression that a machine never existed before Pendergast took over Kansas City.

In pursuing Mr. Truman—and the baying of the pack in full cry is not a pleasant sound—we may want to forget that you and you and you and I made the machine possible by our indifference to and contempt of politics—or because the machine served our own private and profitable interests.

Machines, Republican and Democratic, have been a too familiar feature of the political landscape. The Penrose machine in Pennsylvania was no aggregation of angels.

The victory snake dance, if it goes on through the next nine months, can do incalculable harm. Self-restraint is not a luxury because the Republicans can so well afford it. And the need for it is so desperate.

from the now archaic holla, halloo or holla. You'll find it hard to believe that the professors who make the dictionaries think that holler is either slang or dialectal.

Now, I am not making this up. Here are some typical comments. The New Century: "Holler: provincial or vulgar form of holla or holla." Merriam Webster: "Holler, noun and verb: Both slang, U. S."

Still more surprising is the fact that Thorndike Century, Winston's and Macmillan's do not even list holler. They tell us that we should say holla, hollo, halloo, or hollon!

To deny holler a legitimate place in the American language, to even intimate that it is improper, dialectal, or illiterate, is so unrealistically finicky as to border on fanaticism. Without doubt, it is soling hairs with a very dull blade. Why it's enough to make us plain Americans rise up in protest and holla (hollo? holloo? holla?) our heads off.

'Whew! That Was a Short Trip!'

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

YOU AND HEALTH.—We had been chatting with Dr. William Harrison, director of the Delta-Menominee health department, and just before we parted he handed us a little paper-covered booklet.

"Here, you might be interested in having this on file," he said. "Today we found it buried under the pile of papers on our desk and dug it out as possible column material."

Dunathan

The cover of the booklet is red and on it appears "Michigan Regulations for the Control of Communicable Diseases," 1947. In accordance with Provisions of Act 146, Public Acts of 1919, Michigan Department of Health, Lansing.

So what. We are presumed to be in fairly good health and so far as we know there are no "communicable diseases" lurking in our system. Public health is a peculiar institution. For the healthy individual it seeks to assure his continued good health; for the ailing individual—especially those with "communicable disease"—it seeks his temporary removal from circulation until he can be cured. That is a too brief and oversimplified summary, but books have been written on the subject in the event you're interested.

ANKYLOSTOMIASIS.—If you have it, you shouldn't, especially in Northern Michigan. Besides, it is a "reportable disease," one among about 66 on the list. A "reportable disease," incidentally, is a communicable one and cases and suspects must be reported immediately to the local health officer. Oh yes, ankylostomiasis is the two-bit word for hookworm.

So hookworm and some 65 other communicable diseases are "reportable." It may surprise you to know that, besides the more familiar and dangerous diseases like typhoid and diphtheria and smallpox, there are some communicable diseases you may not have considered dangerous to public health.

Mumps, for one. And pink eye, and impetigo and pediculosis. Everyone knows what the mumps is because almost everyone has had it, usually in childhood. But pediculosis. That's head lice. If you don't know. And if you do have them you know it and so will just about everyone else. School teachers and school nurses examine the heads of the pupils periodically to determine if there is anything there besides hair. Sometimes there is.

The Michigan regulations for the control of communicable diseases reports: "Cases and suspects shall be reported. No placard is required. Patients shall be excluded from school and public gatherings until free from infection. The health officer may order disinfection of the home and clothing and isolate the children for the purpose of cleansing, and order parents to rid the family of infestation."

NOT SO RARE.—While mumps is listed as a "reportable disease," the state health department regulation does not require that the house of a mumps case be isolated until the patient shall be placarded and recovered, but that does not mean that all members of the family are under quarantine. Incidentally, mumps are considered a disease of childhood. It is better that you have them then, for among adults serious complications may follow.

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Gladstone.—Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Janke are the parents of a daughter born March 18 at St. Francis hospital.

Escanaba.—Miss Louella Weisert has returned from Milwaukee where for the past six months she has studied pediatric and psychiatric nursing, at Milwaukee County General hospital.

Escanaba.—William Mather, a student of Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton, has arrived to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mather, sr.

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba.—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Finn are the parents of a nine-month son born yesterday at St. Francis hospital.

Escanaba.—Carl Albin Grant, 31, was found dead in the bathroom of the Grant home Sunday. Death was attributed to asphyxiation caused by fumes from a gas heater.

Bark River.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schultz are leaving this week for North Dakota where Mr. Schultz has accepted employment.

Manistiquette.—Mr. and Mrs. William Gentz has been dismissed from Laing hospital in Escanaba where she was a patient for the past three weeks.

gerous communicable diseases" says the state health department of venereal disease. Physicians are required under the law to report to health authorities all cases of venereal disease that come under their observation. All such reports are held to be confidential.

Persons infected with venereal disease can be forced, under the law, to submit to treatment. They are also required to give the names of possible suspects, so they may be kept under observation. No persons with any venereal disease in a communicable form is permitted to work in any place where food or drink is prepared or handled in any way, for sale, or to be sold. Persons who knowingly employ infected persons in such capacities are subject to penalties established by law.

If the infected persons are unwilling to submit to treatment, the probate court has authority to commit the patient to an approved hospital, because he is a menace to public health.

PROTECTION.—Through immunization several of the dangerous communicable diseases can be controlled from becoming epidemic. Two of the most dangerous are smallpox and diphtheria. It is reassuring to know that the Delta-Menominee health department is now completing immunization against these two once dread diseases, and that 80 per cent of all the school children in the two counties will be protected. With this high percentage of protection, an epidemic among the youth of the area would be impossible.

RABIES.—Although this is not always done, the law requires that all cases of dog bites be reported to health authorities. The reason is obvious. Dogs are the principal cause of infecting humans with rabies. Although rabies does not create the terror it once did, the vaccine administered to infected humans is in itself dangerous—although it is better to receive treatment than to die.

Any dog or other animal that has bitten a person should be held in confinement for at least 10 days. If the animal dies, the head should be sent to a laboratory for examination for rabies. If rabies is found, the person receives prophylactic rabies vaccine.

By Hal Boyle

New York, (AP)—George Washington never told a lie. That's what the story books say.

But history doesn't record whether George ever had to explain how he got:

(1) A black eye;

(2) A scratch on the cheek; or

(3) A bump on the head.

If he did, it is doubtful whether the father of his country ever would have won his reputation.

For there would have been no use for him to say "I bumped into a door," "the cat scratched me," or "I tripped and fell and cracked my head."

Even Congress wouldn't have believed him, and a lot of old neighbors would have gone around shaking their heads and telling each other: "You know, I never believed that story about George cutting down the cherry tree either. Bet he hired somebody to do it."

The truth is that honesty is never the best policy in explaining the accidental cuts, bumps and bruises you receive leading a normal life. Belief in such cases is too much to ask of friends.

If you want them to continue to count on your veracity, invent the wildest tale you can. They will swallow it more easily than the bare truth. Because of this, our whole faith is based on the theory that no mishap can befall a man going about the ordinary chores of living. If he does get a black eye—"Oh, oh, he must have been up to some monkeyshines."

I am bringing up all this because I have a "bump-cut" on the back of my head myself. I got it last week on a visit to friends in the airborne troops at Ft. Bragg. I got it by slipping and falling in a bathtub.

When I came home, Frances took a look at the bandage and her eyes gave me a wife's wordless "Well?"

"Fell in a bathtub," I mumbled. "It's nothing."

"You mean it's nothing but another hole in your head? She asked sweetly.

She didn't say she didn't believe me. In fact after I repeated five times exactly how it happened, she said with formal enthusiasm, "Oh, I believe you all right." Wives are so tactful.

At the office I explained the accident to the first five people who inquired. Their unanimous reaction: a wink and "oh, yeah—H-H?" That cured me.

I told the next guy that I had bent down to inspect a bear trap being shown me by a Mountaineer, and the jaws had snapped shut on me.

"Gee Whiz!" he said, "you could have been killed!" After that I told other inquiring friends that (1) I had been leaning out to watch a parade and the window banged on me.

(2) I had crash landed in a glider; and

(3) I had made a parachute jump and come down on my skull rather than risk spraining my weak ankles.

Everyone was sympathetic. All believed me.

And I know right now what's in your mind. You're thinking: "What's Boyle trying to hide? How did he really get that bump on his noggin?"

Well, the truth is, I was run over by a darn fool stunting in a dirigible. And I'm lucky to be alive.

The difference between the Democratic and Republican parties is that the Republicans take care of the top layer and hope that something will trickle down to the bottom, and the Democrats try to take care of the masses.—Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D) of Wyoming.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Here are some of the worries behind President Truman's message to Congress.

Worry No. 1.—News of Russian germ-warfare plans. Soviet scientists are reported to have developed two types of virus, one to wipe out cattle, the other to spread pestilence among humans.

Actually, Russian progress on bacteriological warfare is no news to U. S. war chiefs. Furthermore, by the end of the war, the U. S. Navy had developed a germ capable of wiping out the entire Japanese wheat crop.

It was also long known that the Russians were working on inoculation for their own troops, so they could advance into enemy territory immune to disease germs after the enemy had been knocked out by bacteriological warfare.

This was known to be Russia's cheap answer to the atomic bomb, since germ warfare can be prepared in small, inexpensive laboratories.

While these facts have long been known to the Army-Navy, U. S. officials are now worried that Russia may be ready to begin surprise bacteriological warfare spread from suitcases by fifth columnists.

NEW RUSSO-GERMAN STATE

Worry No. 2.—Russia is reported to have completed plans for setting up a brand new Soviet-German government on or before May 1. The new capital would be at Koenigsburg, and the government would be under Field Marshal von Paulus, German commander taken prisoner at Stalingrad and since then engaged in training a special German army for Russia.

Von Paulus is reported to have returned to Moscow March 4 following a seven-week tour of Russian-occupied Germany. The tour was for the purpose of working out details of the New Soviet-German government.

Von Paulus' German unit of the Red army was reported two months ago to total 1,000,000, is now believed to total 1,600,000.

The Russians take extreme precautions to prevent this German army from double-crossing them. The families of von Paulus and 35 of his staff officers are kept in Moscow as hostages. Von Paulus' army is also denied artillery. Ammunition is carefully rationed, with no large ammunition depots inside Germany.

Other worries.—Russian troop maneuvers in and around Germany; also the Russian grab for more and more territory for the purpose of isolating Moscow from U. S. long-range bombers and the atomic bomb. The more territory Russia takes, the farther away our bases must be.

END OF RUSSIA'S ROPE

Strategy behind the president's message to Congress was not entirely worry. It was partly for the psychological effect on (1) Russia, (2) On the countries Russia seeks to dominate.

Diplomats have long believed that if Sir Edward Grey, British foreign minister in 1914, had warned the Kaiser that the invasion of Belgium meant war with Britain, the Kaiser would not have struck.

Therefore, U. S. war chiefs have been advising that Russia should be told that she has now gone as far as she can without a direct clash with the United States.

The psychological effect of a firm stand on Italy, Scandinavia and France is also considered important. The Czech coup has caused them to cringe with fright. Italian voters have been terrorized with the threat that the Communists were preparing a purge list of those who opposed them, and that the Russians were soon coming in to make that purge effective.

Note 1.—Talking to senators the other day, Secretary of State Marshall urged passage of military training because of its psychological effect on Russia. Senators countered that a big airplane program would have greater effect. Marshall replied that planes would take too long to build.

Note 2.—In 1940, Marshall, then chief of staff and never add-minded, asked Congress for only six Flying Fortresses. And this was after Poland was invaded!

NAVY'S WHITE ELEPHANTS

When high-up U. S. air officers really let their hair down, they are scathing in their criticism of a big land army and of Navy blueprints for giant airplane carriers.

Carriers, they point out, not only take two years and tremendous quantities of steel to build, but are white elephants. It takes too many warships to protect them, and they are knocked out for keeps

Soviet Rocket Bombs Facing Italy; Russia Has V-2s At Yugoslav Bases

BY BOGDAN RADITSA
Ex-Yugoslav Press Information
Chief
Written for NEA Service
Copyright, 1948, by NEA Service, Inc.

Russian rocket bombs have been moved to launching sites along Yugoslavia's borders as Italy prepares for her crucial election April 18 and pressure increases on the tiny Allied token force at Trieste.

That information comes to me from reliable eye-witness sources, Yugoslav friends who have fled from Tito's domain as I did to escape the fate that befell liberals in other Russian satellite countries.

The rockets are captured German V-1 buzzbombs and V-2s, which presumably came from the great Nazi rocket experimental station at Penemunde in the Soviet zone of Germany. To these the Russians have added their own "improved" version, supposedly capable of soaring 400 miles in 17 minutes.

Such bombs, fired from newly-built bases on the Adriatic coast, could reach Rome, Naples or Salerno. More launching platforms menace Italy from northwestern Yugoslavia and ring the Free State of Trieste, where 10,000 American and British troops are held on a combat footing. Other rocket sites in the southern mountains overlook Greece where government troops are battling guerrilla forces.

Those facts come to me in letters which bear a Swiss postmark and the handwriting of a trusted exile, safe in Swiss neutrality, whose name cannot be mentioned. Inside the envelopes is the handwriting of sincere and observing Yugoslav lawyers and business men who have managed to get to Italy and there, in comparative safety, smuggle their facts to Switzerland.

They have seen more than the rockets which Russia has been delivering and the bases built by slave labor. They report:

Torpedo boats, in dismantled form, are being delivered to the former naval base at Duvlana, near Split, on the Adriatic. (Trucks sent to Yugoslavia by the U. S. were assembled here in 1941.) At least 14 of the torpedo boats have been assembled.

Pocket submarines, also in dismantled form, have been shipped by rail by the Russians to Fiume, just south of Trieste. After being put together, the submarines move by sea in Tito-held waters, probably to underground bases which have been observed under construction on the Albanian coast.

Combat aircraft—the World War II "Stormovik," the "Petljakov," and newer fighters which are being kept hidden in hangars—have been brought in from Russia to Yugoslav airfields especially prepared for them. The Sombor field in northeast Yugoslavia, built by the Hungarians during occupation, has been rebuilt by the Russians and now serves exclusively for Soviet aviation.

Big guns—76 and 88 mm. artillery—and the tanks that ride into combat ahead of them have been coming in from Russia, along with armored cars. Eighty of the tanks wait under camouflage in a valley less than two miles from Gjevjelija on the Greek frontier, where even the camouflage cannot hide the guns in the chain of bunker fortifications.

On the Adriatic shoreline from Fiume to Kotor, the big guns from Russia (and bigger ones built in Yugoslavia from German prototypes) bristle from natural rock fortifications, pointing toward Italy. At Sibenik (near Split) and Kotor (across from Bari, Italy) are Russian coastal batteries; the one at Kotor guards a V-2 base.

All this, of course, is being done in the name of Tito, Yugoslav gauleiter for the new Soviet order. But the men as well as the war machines bear an authentic "made in U. S. S. R." stamp.

In every Yugoslav division and brigade, Russian officers and commissars instruct the Yugoslav soldiers. They wear Yugoslav uniforms and speak the Yugoslav tongue as well as their own. Tito's 78 generals are young men who rode through the ranks on the Red surge, but like Tito, they too are puppets; the Russian commissars who stand beside them are the real generals.

Tito's top officers, as well as the specialists in his Army, got their training in Russia. The Soviet schooling has been strongest in the air force; large numbers of fighter pilots are ready to fly new-type Soviet planes, although these planes have not yet been seen in Yugoslav skies.

The Yugoslavs are resigned to seeing these planes in their skies—in action—by spring or summer. When I was in Belgrade in 1945, there was a great feeling of depression among the Communists after the atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima; for two weeks, it served as the greatest propaganda against Communism. But soon the Reds were bragging again.

And last November, Tito confidently told the Communist leader in Croatia:

"We are ready to sink their (American) fleet in the Adriatic. Against their atomic bombs we shall use our own. We do not stand alone this time. Our material comes from an inexhaustible source."

"Russian workshops turn out 30,000 cars a month. Headquarters have at their disposal 150 divisions ready to march on 48 hours' notice and capable of wiping out all obstacles obstructing their advance to Paris."

"Comrade, you know well that the people are not on our side. The farmers are perfidious and obstinate, and it is impossible to clear their brains of belief in priests and saints. When priests toll alarm bells, there will be wholesale insurrection."

Which explains why the secret police—the UDB, or Office for the Security of the State, until recently called OZNA—is so busily cataloging those who will be arrested when alarm bells toll.

It explains, too, why so many people who have managed to build up good records as Communists and get assignments to Italy and elsewhere on purchasing missions, suddenly become exiles and do not return. That is how I fled and how some of my friends, who write me of the things they have seen, manage to get out and never return.

Home Is Destroyed
Engadine, Mich.—Fire of undetermined origin, but which is thought to have started from an overheated stove and chimney, early Wednesday morning destroyed the home of the Otto Schliske family on the south edge of town.

From information gathered, it seems that Mr. Schliske, Tuesday evening had driven his brother Gus Schliske, and a neighbor Ervin Smith to their respective homes, and had stayed awhile to visit. Returning home about 10:00 o'clock, it being rather cold Mr. Schliske started a fire in the stove, and after sitting around a few minutes went to bed. It is thought that the chimney became overheated causing the fire to break out in the roof completely destroying the home and contents except for a few household articles.

The fire was first discovered by two residents of Gould City who were returning from Newberry about 1:00 o'clock, and noticed smoke coming from the building. The family were awakened, and Mr. and Mrs. Schliske and their two small children barely escaped with their lives.

The fire fighting equipment from Gould City, as well as the fire department from Curtis, which consists of a fire fighting chemical truck and crew were on the job, and soon extinguished the balance of the fire.

It is believed that the loss is partly covered by insurance. The

Dog Mushers Try To Recover Bodies In Alaskan Crash

Anchorage, Alaska (P)—Two Alaska dog mushers made plans for a possible trip up rugged Mount Sanford and recovery of the bodies of 30 plane crash victims.

Plans for possible removal were disclosed shortly after wreaths were dropped Wednesday on the mountain in tribute to the victims.

A Northwest Airlines DC-4 flew as close to the crash scene as possible for the aerial funeral rites.

The 30 victims were killed Friday when a Northwest Airlines plane, en route to Shanghai from St. Paul, crashed in a glacial pocket on the mountain. Mount Sanford is 190 miles northeast of Anchorage.

The two mushers are Jack Butler and Danny Ewan. Butler, one of Alaska's most famous sled men, said in Fairbanks he believed the scene may be accessible over two routes.

Trained mountaineers' expressed belief earlier that it would be impossible to recover the bodies.

Benefit Fashion
Review Sets Off
Easter Parade

The newest and smartest of Easter wear, accenting gay colors and smooth silhouettes, were on parade in William W. Oliver Memorial auditorium for the benefit of some 600 persons last night.

Set to an orchestral background provided by the high school string ensemble, the review was opened with a group of young boys and girls modeling both dressy and sport clothes for the spring season.

Highlighting the show was an effective stage setting of a church window and lighted candles, with a built-up trestle for an aisle. The fashions were modeled on the bridge, extending to about the tenth row.

Ten-agers, and their fashionable swaggers and evening clothing, paraded next. The audience enjoyed the graceful modeling by the young people as much as a first look at what fashion proclaims for the season.

Smooth Lines
As announced in the commentary, clothing this season is much on the same order as last fall's except that the lines are smoother and more rounded, with greater emphasis placed on silhouette.

A group of trim Escanaba women modeled new spring suits, long, but with an eye to practicality and comfort. They also demonstrated how smart coats, print dresses, various ensembles and dresses could be worn this spring.

An awe inspiring finale, which threw a hush over the attentive audience, was a formal wedding party staged by the young women. Companion dresses in pastel shades for the bridesmaids and a lovely white bridal gown with court train and a veil of illusion set off with a wide lace band, were modeled.

Youngsters modeling were Mary Cretens, Julia Garrard, Mary Mannebach, Bonnie and Patty Peterson, Mary Lynn Peterson, Mary Goodreau, Billy Nelson, Donna Sullivan, Patsy Davis, and others.

Benefit Show
Teen-agers who modeled were Barbara Groos, Mary Skepek, Nancy Duchaine, Bonnie Provo, Marion Birkenmeier and Kathryn Perrin. The Misses Bette Jule Him, Shirley Baker, Isabelle Bink Marion Birkenmeier, Irma Bartley, Mary Loeffler, Rosemary Curran and Kathryn Perrin modeled suits.

Tuck Combs Tame
Baby-Fine Hair

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Disciplining flyaway locks to conform to a tidy coiffure poses a problem for the girl with baby-fine hair.

If that's your problem, one of the best ways to coax good behavior out of this wayward hair is to pick a coiffure style which is not too demanding. Neither a bow-tied Gibson Girl hair-do nor a page-boy bob will make unfair demands of baby-fine hair.

When you have settled for a simple-to-manage style, choose combs which will keep a good grip of flyaway hair. One type of new grip-tooth comb has its teeth so tapered that they almost close in on the hair they hold. In this way there is little chance of escape.

For the final touch of discipline, use a lacquer spray on your hair after you have slicked it into and grooved in your combs. To control wisps which tug loose as the day wears on, carry lacquer-soaked cotton pads in your purse and use for needed touch-ups.

Beer rinses have a disciplining effect on fine or silvery hair by giving it more body. Hairdressers recommend pouring a glass of beer over the hair for the final rinse after a shampoo.

Beverly Mattson,
Roy S. Person
Exchange Vows

In a candlelight service Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Immanuel Lutheran church, Beverly Ann Mattson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Mattson, and Roy S. Person, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Person, Gladstone, Route One, spoke their marriage vows before Rev. L. R. Lund.

Dorothy Norby, soloist of the service, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" and the Lohengrin procession and Mendelssohn's Wedding march were played by Eunice Holmes.

Marion Mickelson, sister of the bride, was honor attendant and Mrs. Eunt Person, bridesmaid. Bangt Person was best man for his brother. Ted Gardner was groomsmen and Llewellyn Larson and Gerald Dufour, ushers. Kellea Mickelson, the bride's niece, served as flower girl, and Robert Mattson, young brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Bride in Ivory Satin
For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of ivory satin, of princess lines, styled with chiffon yoke, which formed a high neckline and covered the shoulders, edged with floral patterned lace, long fitted sleeves, pointed at the wrist and a full skirt which formed a long train. Her veil of illusion was edged in lace matching the gown, and was held in place by a tiara of tiny calla lilies. Her only jewelry was a pendant, set with a sapphire, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried calla lilies and white carnations.

The attendants were gowned in aqua and pink net over taffeta with which they wore matching headbands and they carried yellow jonquils and harmonizing carnations and sweetpeas. The flower girl wore ivory satin with a full skirt and carried mixed flowers and the ring bearer was dressed in a black Eton suit with white lace collar and cuffs.

The bride's mother chose a wool ensemble of black and white with black accessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Person wore black with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of red roses and white carnations.

Wedding Supper
A wedding supper for 35 guests was served at the Log Cabin and a reception was held from 7 to 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago, the couple will live at Soo Hill. Both are Escanaba high school graduates. Mr. Person is employed by the Hiawatha Manufacturing company.

Sgt. Rita Seymour
Twice Commended
For Good Driving

Westover Air Force Base, Chipeco Falls, Mass.—The U. S. Air Force has a habit of being right. When it says that women are good automobile drivers, the chances are that it's right. When the Air Force says it twice, there can be no further argument.

On February 26 1st Lt. Walter H. Thipod, motor pool officer at Westover Air Force Base, speeded a letter to the Commanding Officer of Squadron "G", WAC Detachment of the Atlantic Division of the Air Transport Command. In it he expressed his "sincere gratitude and appreciation to the WAC drivers assigned to the Base Motor Pool."

He continued by recommending that WAC drivers Sgt. Rita Seymour, Cpl. Ann Nehring, Cpl. June Meyers, Cpl. Alice Nicholson and Cpl. Florence Smith be awarded the driver's medal for their "great driving ability, alertness and cooperation during the past winter months while driving through extremely hazardous conditions. They performed their duties eagerly and conscientiously."

This medal is awarded only to drivers of military vehicles who have not had an accident of any sort during a period of at least three months, who have not violated any traffic regulations and who have received a general rating of "excellent" from their immediate supervisors.

Squadron "G," with pardonable pride, began preparations to award the medal. The records of the above-named "Enlisted Women" were examined—and all action came to an abrupt halt. They had all been awarded the driver's medal previously.

The county financial report of the 1948 drive is as follows:

WORLD AFFAIRS
ARE DISCUSSEDMichigan U. Professor
Says There Will Be
No Pearl Harbor

Is war between this country and Soviet Russia imminent?

The junior high school auditorium was filled Wednesday evening with Manistique residents eager to hear an answer to this question from Professor Russell H. Field, of the faculty of the University of Michigan who spoke at the first of a series of lectures to be presented here by the University Extension service.

In his talk on the subject "The United States and Russia in the World of Power Politics," Prof. Field gave no direct answer as to whether or not there would be war, but there was reassurance in his conviction that Russia does not want war.

President Truman's address Wednesday, he said, was designed apparently to dramatize the situation, to alert the American public to the serious problem at hand and to impress European countries, particularly Italy, with what they may expect if that country, in the coming elections goes Communist.

Italy, the speaker stated is the key country in the Marshall plan.

"One World" Obsolete

The speaker stated that a few years ago the "One World" idea, popularized by Wendell Wilkie, was thought by many to be the basis for sound world peace. Today, he said, the "Two World" idea is running the world. The ideologies of the Soviet Union and of America are each seeking dominance. Whether the inevitable clash between these two ideals means war, he was unable to state. Greece and Korea, he cited, as the danger spots.

War, if it should come, will not be ushered in by any Pearl Harbor, he said. Rather there will be a series of explosive incidents that will gradually draw the conflict on.

U. S. Not Blameless
This country, he said, is far from blameless in the matter of the veto power exercised in the United Nations by Russia. Both Stalin and Roosevelt, he stressed, were strong for the veto power provision. Stalin, he said, has used it many times while the USA has never resorted to its use. He also pointed out that our foreign policy, particularly those phases of it known as the Marshall Plan and the Truman Plan are not a part of the United Nations program.

Palestine Powder Keg
The partition of Palestine, now being worked out by the United States, is another matter which is very apt to work against this country. Should it become necessary to police the Palestine area, Russian troops would have as much right to perform that duty as would American troops. The presence of Soviet troops in the Mediterranean area would prove a menace to the interests of America and of England and Western Europe.

Stalin Bluffing?

"Is Stalin bluffing?" the speaker asked. He answered that there was good reason to think that in some respects he is. Stalin is too canny a man to risk a war in which he will be defeated. While his country has made great advances in the recent past it is many years behind America. The speaker stated that it was highly improbable that Russia had the atomic bomb ready for use and could hardly be expected to have it ready for at least five more years.

Another matter which he listed as reassuring was the very obvious fact that the common people of Russia are in a state of very low morale. Communism, he said, is far more attractive from without than from within. Of the more than two hundred million people in Soviet Russia today, actual members of the communist party number slightly over six million. Should Stalin pass from the picture in the near future, there would inevitably be a scramble for power by his subordinates. This would mean a change in policy.

He warned, however, that Rus-

The Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church enjoyed their annual "Experience Social" on Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with about fifty in attendance. Mrs. Harry Secore, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Walter Linderoth had arranged the program of the afternoon which was as follows: Scripture reading, Psalm 103—Mrs. Linderoth; Prayer—Mrs. E. T. King; Hymn by the group—"In the Garden"—Vocal solo—"Moonbeams" (Victor Herbert)—Mrs. L. C. Harbin; Xylophone solos—"Chaconne", "The Wearing of the Green"—Mrs. Wm. Schobert accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Tom Shampine; Reading—Mrs. Mrs. Edvah Strassler Vocal solo—Mrs. Lillian Boyd; Piano Duet, "Garden of Roses"—Mrs. Linderoth and Mrs. Schobert; Two readings, Mrs. Secore, Ladies' Trio, "Lead Me to Calvary"—Mrs. Harbin, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Schobert; Hymn by the group—"When Love Shines In."

Following this program the roll was called and as each member presented her gift she gave an original poem stating how the money was earned. These poems proved to be very clever and humorous and were much enjoyed by all. A delicious buffet luncheon was served by the social committee composed of Mrs. Rivers, Mrs. Hewitt and Mrs. Strassler. Mrs. Secore and Mrs. Schobert poured. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of green carnations and green tapers in crystal holders, in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

Three Vehicles Collide East Of Gulliver

A logging truck, a creamery truck and a passenger car figured in a motor mishap about half a mile east of Gulliver Wednesday afternoon.

The logging truck loaded with pulpwood and driven by Ernest Tuttle of Curtis; the creamery truck driven by Reginald Pellegrini, of Norway and the motor car driven by James MacGregor of Gulliver, were all proceeding eastward in the order named when MacGregor turned out to pass the other two. A moment later, Pellegrini, evidently not seeing the car behind him turned out. These two vehicles collided and rammed the logging truck.

All cars were able to proceed on their own power and the damage was largely confined to broken fenders and headlights. No one was injured.

Tuttle was given a ticket for not yielding right of way.

Girl Claims Beery Offered Her $2000 In Paternity Case

Los Angeles (AP)—Charging that Wallace Beery has offered her $2,000 to defray the paternity issue in her suit, Gloria Schumm, movie bit player has petitioned Superior court to change her lawyers.

She alleges that Joseph L. Fainer, who has been representing her in her suit against the movie actor, transmitted the $2,000 offer with the proviso that the question of paternity be deferred "until some indefinite future time."

Maurice Rose, who she wishes to retain as her counsel, told the court she is penniless, that she objects to further delay, and is seeking relief from a charitable institution.

Mrs. Schumm claims Beery is the father of her five-weeks-old son, Johan Richard Wallace Schumm, but has paid nothing for the birth, support and maintenance.

When the territory of Oregon was established in 1848, it included the present states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and portions of Montana.

The deposit is one of the few dating from the miocene period to be found in the eastern United States.

Holy Cross Beats Wolverines

New York, March 19 (P)—Michigan's Big Nine champion basketball team was on the sidelines of Eastern NCAA competition today, placed there deedly by a strong Holy Cross outfit that downed the Wolverines 63 to 45.

That victory last night was the 19th straight for the NCAA defending champs and sent them into a title battle Saturday with the fast young giants of Kentucky, heavy favorites from a statistical viewpoint. Kentucky demonstrated its prowess with an easy 76 to 53 walk over underdog Columbia. A crowd of 18,477 spectators watched the semi-final contests in Madison Square Gardens.

Michigan hung on to Holy Cross during the early part of the second game and even led, 21 to 16, at one stage. But the Crusaders closed the gap, went ahead at the half, 34 to 27, and grew stronger as the contest progressed.

Nomination For City's Most Improved Bowler Roy Carlson--269--648

By Bill McCarthy

Taking top honors in the Handicap Sweeper after a well earned 648 series, Roy Carlson continued his current torrid pace to top the Honor Roll with 269, highest single game bowled at the Arcade this season. In establishing his first 250 plus score, Roy tapped the pins for eight consecutive strikes, a spare in the ninth after the 10 pin refused to topple, and filled up the tenth with a strike and a spare. He paced his City Drug mates this week with a 556 set on scores of 175,209,172.

Roy's upward surge in recent weeks can be attributed to the sincere diligence and effort he has expended to master the sport. No single competitor is more eager to follow the basic fundamentals of bowling or to accept the helpful hints occasionally offered by others in order to achieve success. A newcomer last season, he can rightly be classed as one of the most improved bowlers of the current year. A glance at the average sheets will clearly show the gradual improvement he has made since opening night, an approximate 20 pin climb to his present 163 average.

Swede Nelson recovered from a dismal tournament showing to post a 603 set in the Classic league Tuesday and to establish the week's top set. Sandquist carried the load with a 570 series on scores of 193,167,210. Roy Johnson also contributed a 210 second game and at an opportune time because Johnny Schwalback with 94 established the team's new low. "Magpie" Magnuson did his part as anchorman by converting three "wide" splits.

While Harry's Boys and Campbells were see-sawing for the Tri-County league lead Herb's Bar entered the fracas by downing the "Boys" for three and repeating against Campbell's last week. Result, Herb's and Harry's Boys are now deadlocked with 22 wins and 11 losses. Campbell's 3 games back. With only nine games remaining, another rousing finish is anticipated.

After sharing the Major league top rung for the past three weeks, the H&J Oils and Corbets clashed last evening in a battle to decide the issue. Deadlocked at 18-6, the first-half champion Corbett's five made clean sweep of the set with Ernie Vanderberghe carrying the load with a 570 series on scores of 193,167,210. Roy Johnson also contributed a 210 second game and at an opportune time because Johnny Schwalback with 94 established the team's new low.

Members of 800's and 600's team are advised that their postponed match will be rolled at 7 Sunday. . . . Tournament bowler Phenoix Boward twirled a record 990 at Iron Mountain last Saturday. . . . His was the only outstanding score among a host of local entrants. . . . Solit artists: Lyle 48-4-10, Jim Fitzpatrick 3-7. . . . Gil Kanaras, and Boyd Lemire rolled repeated on the pinsetter. . . . "Roll" with a 246 and 213 respectively. . . . Bob Johnson with 203 and John McGraw 202 scored in the Eskv High league. . . . Barbara Deville registered a 467 aggregate to head the Women's Major on scores of 157, 161, 149.

Harry Garner produced sets of 599 and 580 on successive evenings. . . . Local bowlers are advised to submit entries for the city tournament as soon as possible.

After sharing the Major league top rung for the past three weeks, the H&J Oils and Corbets clashed last evening in a battle to decide the issue. Deadlocked at 18-6, the first-half champion Corbett's five made clean sweep of the set with Ernie Vanderberghe carrying the load with a 570 series on scores of 193,167,210. Roy Johnson also contributed a 210 second game and at an opportune time because Johnny Schwalback with 94 established the team's new low.

Top Ranking Track Stars at Chicago

Chicago, March 19 (P)—The nation's top-ranking track stars will thump the indoor planks for the last time this season in the Chicago relays tomorrow night at the Chicago stadium.

The 12th renewal of the carnival which claims 10 world records fashioned and 16 tied in its history has attracted a typically illustrious field.

Six National A. A. U. titleholders and five Big Nine champions are included in the slick array.

ROBERTS LOOKS GOOD
Clearwater, Fla., March 19 (P)—Robin Roberts, 21-year-old former Michigan State college pitcher who received a $25,000 bonus to sign with the Philadelphia Phillies, gave an impressive mound performance against the Washington Senators yesterday.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Finesse and deception were a major stock in trade of the undefeated University of Michigan Wolverine eleven last fall.

Fritz Crisler is a master of deception, and the Wolverines' ability to master every trick in the cage one's bag was a big factor in their success.

Crisler's retirement as head coach to confine his activities to the job of university athletic director recalls one story that illustrates very well what a sly fox he is.

Playing end on the University of Chicago football team years ago, Crisler was just a youngster breaking into the game under Alonzo Stagg. In one game, he had the misfortune of being pitted against Princeton's great all-American tackle, Stan Keek, a bruiser of the Bronko Naguski type, and the story of how Crisler handled himself in this situation is a classic.

Undaunted by the battering he was taking from Keek, Crisler pretended complete innocence of the fact that he was playing against the great one.

"Where the heck is Keek?" Crisler would ask his opponent after each play. "Why doesn't your coach use him?"

He spiced this line of chatter with: "Say, I'll let you take me out on several plays so you'll look good. Your coach will notice you and maybe he won't send Keek in to take your place."

Keek was completely taken in with this chatter, and as the game wore on, he was soundly outplayed by the lighter and more inexperienced Crisler because of the latter's jockeying ability, quick wit and incessant needling.

Cuff Notes: The three U. P. basketball champions, Bessemer, Ontonagon and Mass, took a record of 58 victories and five defeats this season into quarterfinal play in Lower Michigan. . . . Mike's Bar made Gold Medal Class B fans sit up and take notice in Hermansville when they beat Iron Mountain handily in a first round game, 66-43. . . . In that encounter, Don Scott made 20 points and Bob Dufour 13. . . . The Chicago Cub family really outdid itself this year in getting out a 1948 Cub Yearbook. . . . If you're a Cub fan, you'll probably find this 48-page piece well worth the 50 centavos they're asking. . . . It contains such items as complete history of the club back to 1876, life time averages of all Cubs, personal data about each player, a special Hall of Fame section, a record section and the story of the Cubs' farm system.

Jake Kramer Way Ahead; Riggs Tired

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, March 19 (P)—When William Howard Tyft was president of Yale, the authorities constructed double seats at Woolsey hall and the baseball field to accommodate the prexy's ample frame. . . . they haven't been used since then, to the great sorrow of Connecticut Yankees, who hate to see anything go to waste. . . . The Eli's new football coach, Herman Hickman, probably will find them just the thing. . . . reports from the southwest say the reason big Jake Kramer is pulling so far ahead of little Bobby Riggs in their pro tennis tour is that Bobby is plumb tired out. Riggs just isn't big and strong enough to take those nightly matches with long drives in between. . . . Byron Boni, regarded as the best prep football center ever developed in Chicago, is headed for Notre Dame. Where else?

Many A Slip
Bobby Hogue, the Braves' Round rookie pitcher, claims to be the only pitcher who ever played a bunt into a three base hit. . . . Bobby was playing on a rain-wet field in Asheville, N. C., a few years ago when an opponent bunted. . . . Hogue raced over and grabbed the ball, then skidded on the clay and slid clear under the bench. . . . before he could crawl out and throw, the runner was on third, but since Hogue had held onto the ball, it couldn't be scored as an error.

One-Minute Sport Page
Although the Cardinals' Eddie Dyer admits he's a bit concerned about the advancing age of his stars, he points out that what hurt the Cards last year was injuries to comparatively young guys like Stan Musial and Howie Pollet. . . . but Eddie gives their ages as 25 and 24, which is knocking a couple of years off what's listed in the Cards' roster. . . . Kentucky's Ralph Beard will be presented a trophy tonight by True magazine as the outstanding basketball player of the year—unless a lot of coaches changed their votes after watching Ed Macauley perform for St. Louis in the invitation tourney final. . . . ### Dartmouth Sextet Tips Colorado, 8-4, In College Hockey

Colorado Springs, March 19 (P)—Dartmouth's resilient Indians will battle for the National Collegiate Hockey title tomorrow night with either Michigan or Boston college as the foe standing in their way.

The Ivy league champions, paced in a fierce last period offensive by the Riley brothers, knocked out Colorado college 8-4 last night before 2,500 in the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

Tonight the second act in the NCAA's first hockey tournament will offer Michigan against Boston at 8:15 (MST).

Michigan is highly rated because of its seasonal record of 18 wins, one tie and two defeats, but the Eagles came west on the crest of a nine game winning streak and seem full of fight.

Several Boxers From Marinette on Manistique Card

Several Marinette boxers will compete at Manistique Monday night in the annual Manistique Lions club spring boxing show, along with battlers from Manistique, Escanaba and Rock.

Vernon Dionne, speedy Marinette lightweight, will meet Don Little, popular Escanaba lightweight, in one of the outstanding bouts of the night and Don Schinjek, Marinette featherweight, will be paired with Jack Cody of Manistique in another bout. A Marinette opponent for Paul Crawford, Manistique 125 pounder, also is being negotiated.

Jimmy Valentine of Escanaba will pair with Halvorsen of Manistique in another match not previously announced.

Reserved seats for the Manistique show can be secured at Gust Aspi's in Escanaba and at Leonard's Barber Shop, Manistique.

New Gym Planned
Georgetown "U" will have a new $800,000 gym in 1949.

BILL EDDY WINS
Saginaw, Mich., March 19 (P)—Former Michigan Lightweight Champ Bill Eddy of Flint, trying a comeback as a welterweight, pounded out a 10-round decision over Red Le Vasseur of Bay City here last night. Eddy, 138½, had Le Vasseur, 142½, in trouble on several occasions but was unable to uncock a knockout punch.

YOUNG FIGHTER DIES
New York, March 19 (P)—Authorities today sought to determine the cause of the death of an 11-year-old Brooklyn school boy who last night fell dead in a boxing ring at the end of a two-round bout. Witnesses said the boy, Christopher Iacona, had taken about 20 to 25 blows to the body during the two, two-minute rounds of the bout held in the gymnasium of Brooklyn public school No. 29.

East Lansing, March 19 (P)—Like the fabled ten little Indians, the claimants for state high school basketball fame have been knocked off one by one. . . . And after tonight the rhyme will read—"and then there were eight."

Teams from 16 high schools will gather at Michigan State's Jenison Fieldhouse tonight for the semifinals in the state basketball fight. All climbed to within grasping distance of the top over the bodies of opponents met during nearly two weeks of continuous play.

The sudden death elimination method will mean more heart break tonight for the eight teams will have to go home labeled as second best. The other eight will fight it out for the top positions in the A, B, C and D finals Saturday night.

Spice will be added to the competition this year by the appearance of two Upper Peninsula semi-finalists—the first to cross the straits in the history of the tournament.

Bessemer, in Class B, will travel from the remote reaches of the Peninsula near the Wisconsin line. The other northern invader will be Mass, a team that built up a terrific reputation by pushing over Kingsley 77 to 34 Wednesday night.

Pairings in the semifinals were determined by the quarterfinal eliminations at out-state centers Wednesday night.

Bessemer, the Class B competitor from the far north, defeated Rogers City 43-31. The northerners will be greeted by a five-man reception committee from St. Joseph, which downed Marshall 42-63.

The only titlist returning this year is Saginaw SS Peter and Paul. The Saginaw dream team made it half a hundred in a row by slapping down Grant 36-31 as Center Art Colygan frolicked for 19 points. The "Midgits" will try their luck against Keego Harbor, in the running after defeating Flint All-Saints 36-32.

The other Class C scrap pits Charlevoix against Milan. Charlevoix pushed over Ontonagon 48-19 and Milan took Berrien Springs 41-36.

Lower Peninsula fans will get their first look at Mass in the Class D contest with Merrill. The Upper Peninsula quintet has won 45 straight—an all-time record for that section and went wild Wednesday night to humiliate Kingsley 77-34. Merrill, boasting a record of 26 straight wins, came in over Michigan School for the Deaf, 58-54.

Bridgman, four times a state champion, meets Dimondale in the other Class D event. Bridgman humbled Hopkins 42-17 and Dimondale edged out Clawson Log Cabin 39-33.

The play starts at 6 p. m. in the two Jenison Fieldhouse gymnasiums. General admission tickets will be sold on a first-come, best-seated basis and the college is prepared to handle a crowd of up to 20,000 divided between the two courts.

"Rented the first day" said Smith

Tigers Nurse Many Ailments As Boston Braves Win, 6 to 4

Lakeland, Fla., March 19 (P)—The Detroit Tigers today were up against a siege of minor assorted ailments that extended all the way to Manager Steve O'Neill.

O'Neill came down with the Tigers went to Bradenton and took a 6-4 beating from the Boston Braves, their sixth exhibition game loss as against four wins.

O'Neill planned to be back in the dugout here today when the Tigers square off against the Cincinnati Reds for the second time with Hal Newhouser doing the pitching.

Sidelined with O'Neill yesterday was Outfielder Vic Wertz, who sprained his ankle sliding in with an inside-the-park homer Wednesday. He may be on the shelf for several days.

Catcher Bob Swift was expected to be back in uniform for the first time since he came down with a throat infection Monday. Three or four others of the 34-man Tiger group were nursing sore arms.

Bowlers from 5 States Hit ABC

Detroit, March 19 (P)—Bowlers from five states will take a crack at existing records in the American Bowling Congress tournament today as "regular" squads resume firing in the 80-day tourney.

"Regular" teams from Ohio, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan were listed to take to the alleys after two squads of "boosters" roll early in the day.

Only one minor change occurred in the tournament yesterday, as a 25-year-old newcomer from Sylvania, O., rolled 663 to take over the No. 9 spot in singles competition. It was Bob Conrad's first national competition. However, chief topic of discussion in the big State Coliseum, scene of the ABC, was the Buddy Bomar case.

Bomar, a member of the world champion Kathryn Bowling team of Chicago, was given a six months suspension and fined $500 by the Bowling Proprietors Association here yesterday.

Mack Wins 8
Connie Mack's teams have won 8 American league pennants.

Class A Fives Begin Title Quest In Hermansville Tourney Tonight

Hermansville, March 19 (Special)—With Class B contestants at the semifinal stage—four survivors from a starting field of 26—the big boys will take over tonight as 13 Class A teams begin the quest for the 1948 Hermansville Gold Medal basketball tournament championship.

The 1947 champions, Bark River Tom Swifts, now playing as the Escanaba Delta Hardware, who recently clinched the season championship of the Northern Wisconsin Michigan Basketball league, will tie off at 9:30 tonight against Channing.

Four other Class A first round tilts are on tap tonight. Norway meeting Quinnesec at 6:30, Vulcan battling the Hermansville Silver Foxes at 7:30, McClelland Radio Service meeting Iron Mountain Squinches Bar at 8:30 and Manistique and Iron River concluding the five-game opening Class A program at 10:30.

This will set the stage for the quarterfinals Saturday night. The semifinals will be played off at 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with the Class A championship finale winding up the annual Hermansville classic at 8 Sunday night.

Meanwhile in Class B, the four survivors of quarterfinals play last night will be idle tonight and tomorrow night. They will resume action in semifinal play at 1 and 2 Sunday afternoon, and the Class B championship battle will be played at 7 Sunday night.

Independents Beat Bridges, 46-43, To Win City Cage Title

The Independents won the National loop championship in city basketball association play here last night by tipping Bridges, 46-43, with Bill Cornueene and Ray Roberts clipping off 14 and 13 points, respectively. Don Lewis led the losers with 18 counters. Utilizing its Nahma players to good advantage, Cloverland Commercial spanked Dagenais in an upset, 48-27. It was Dagenais' first loss of the season. Charles Camps, of Yankee tryout fame, banged in 22 points for Cloverland. Wayne Sundquist collected 12 for the Grocers.

Faced by Dick Williamson's 23 points, Gladstone Lions capped the American circuit cellar by trouncing Liberty Clowns, 48-27. John Hirt hit 15 for the Clowns.

These games wound up the regular season play. Next in line is the city tourney the second week in April. Steve Baltic officiated last night.

Silver Gloves Boys Start Training for Annual Spring Show

All Silver Gloves boxers are asked to report at the Youth Center at 10:30 Saturday morning and during Easter vacation at 1:30 Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

The fighters are training for the annual spring Silver Gloves boxing show. Jerome Deloria, in charge of the program, said three weeks of training with three practice sessions a week will be required before a youngster will be permitted to participate in the Silver Gloves show.

Grade School Fives Ready for Tourney

After one more week of league play, city grade school basketball teams will point toward the annual school tournament in which each school will be represented by one team of 15 players each. Winners will be awarded emblems. Last season, Franklin fifth grade and St. Joseph's sixth grade teams won championships.

The schedule tomorrow at the junior high school follows: St. Joe-Franklin, 10 a. m. to noon; Jefferson-Barr, 1 to 2:30 p. m.; Webster-Washington, 2:30 to 4 p. m.

Follow closely, and you'll be able to figure out how they're going to break that two-way tie for second and third and three-way tie for fourth, fifth and sixth in order to determine the top four teams for the Northern Wisconsin Michigan Basketball league playoffs.

Escanaba is in with 14 triumphs and four losses, but from there on down to Iron Mountain in seventh place, it's a wild scramble that necessitates a playoffs before the official playoffs.

Okeh, let's go. On the basis of a

Holy Cross Beats Wolverines

New York, March 19 (AP)—Michigan's Big Nine champion basketball team was on the sidelines of Eastern NCAA competition today, placed there deftly by a strong Holy Cross outfit that downed the Wolverines 63 to 45.

That victory last night was the 19th straight for the NCAA defending champs and sent them into a title battle Saturday with the fast young giants of Kentucky, heavy favorites from a statistical viewpoint. Kentucky demonstrated its prowess with an easy 76 to 53 walk over underdog Columbia. A crowd of 18,477 spectators watched the semi-final contests in Madison Square Gardens. Michigan hung on to Holy Cross during the early part of the second game and even led, 21 to 16, at one stage. But the Crusaders closed the gap, went ahead at the half, 34 to 27, and grew stronger as the contest progressed.

Nomination For City's Most Improved Bowler Roy Carlson--269--648

By Bill McCarthy
Taking top honors in the Handicap Sweeper after a well earned 648 series, Roy Carlson continued his current torrid pace to top the Honor Roll with 269, highest single game bowled at the Arcade this season. In establishing his first 250 plus score, Roy tapped the pins for eight consecutive strikes, a spare in the ninth after the 10 pin refused to topple, and filled up the tenth with a strike and a spare. He paced his City Drug mates this week with a 556 set on scores of 175,209,172.

Roy's upward surge in recent weeks can be attributed to the sincere diligence and effort he has expended to master the sport. No single competitor is more eager to follow the basic fundamentals of bowling or to accept the helpful hints occasionally offered by others in order to achieve success. A newcomer last season, he can rightfully be classed as one of the most improved bowlers of the current year. A glance at the average sheet will clearly show the gradual improvement he has made since opening night, an approximate 20 pin climb to his present 163 average.

Swede Nelson recovered from a dismal tournament showing to post a 603 set in the Classic league Tuesday and to establish the week's top set. Sandwiching a 240 game between 183 and 180, he led his Clairmont mates to a double triumph over the Elks and a 2702 set. In piling up his high score, Swede collected eight strikes, sparing only the sixth. With an Honor Roll score practically cinched, he missed the head pin in the tenth for a six pin count and spilled two more on his second heave to fall short of the coveted mark by just one spare. Clarence "Flash" Moyle contributed a 235, 574 to the Transfer victory, to protect their first place spot.

After sharing the Major league top rung for the past three weeks, the H&J Oils and Corbets clashed last evening in a battle to decide the issue. Deadlocked at 18-6, the first-half champion Corbett's five made clean sweep of the set with Ernie Vanderberghe carrying the load with a 570 series on scores of 193,167,210. Roy Johnson also contributed a 210 second game and at an opportune time because Johnny Schwalback with 94 established the team's new low. "Maggie" Magnuson did his part as anchorman by converting three "wide" splits.

While Harry's Boys and Campbells were see-sawing for the Tri-County league lead Herb's Bar entered the fracas by downing the "Boys" for three and repeating against Campbell's last week. Result, Herb's and Harry's Boys are now deadlocked with 22 wins and 11 losses, Campbells 3 games back. With only nine games remaining, another rousing finish is anticipated.

TIMBER CHATTER: Although rated the top loop in the territory, Classic league bowlers failed to perform as "Topnotchers" this week. . . . Secretary Bill Puckelwartz called our attention to the double victory of the Arcadians over the Paper Company. . . . To the tune of 728, the victors copied the opener by 15 pins. . . . Their 793 also won, by eight pins. . . . Comes the final and the Arcadians lose by 62 pins in spite of an 848 game. . . . Delta league boss Clarence Zerbel added the clincher last evening however, a roaring 613 total rolled by North-west Fruit. . . . In comparison, the RKDettes of the Women's Major had a 689 low and a 750 high in their match. . . . Babe Johnson of the Wednesday Elks Club leaped gained the Woman's Honor Roll with a 202-495. . . . Gray's Goats roared back from their continued beatings to humble the Crusaders with a triple set-back in the Tuesday 9 o'clock league. . . . Members of 800's and 600's team are advised that their postponed match will be rolled at 7 Sunday. . . . Tournament bowler or Phenix Boward twirled a record 990 at Iron Mountain last Saturday. . . . His was the only outstanding score among a host of local entrants. Split artists: Loyd 4-10, Jim Fitzpatrick 3-7. . . . Gil Kanakas, and Boyd Lemirand repeated on the pinsetter "Roll" with a 246 and 213 respectively. . . . Bob Johnson with 203 and John McGraw 202 scored in the Esby High league. . . . Barbara Deville registered a 467 average to head the Women's Major on scores of 157, 161, 149. . . . Harry Garner produced sets of 599 and 580 on successive evenings. . . . Local bowlers are advised to submit entries for the city tournament as soon as possible.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY HIM WARD

Finesse and deception were a major stock in trade of the undefeated University of Michigan Wolverine eleven last fall.

Fritz Crisler is a master of deception, and the Wolverines' ability to master every trick in the cage one's bag was a big factor in their success.

Crisler's retirement as head coach to confine his activities to the job of university athletic director recalls one story that illustrates very well what a sly fox he is.

Playing end on the University of Chicago football team years ago, Crisler was just a youngster breaking into the game under Alonzo Stagg. In one game, he had the misfortune of being pitted against Princeton's great all-American tackle, Stan Keck, a bruiser of the Bronko Naguski type, and the story of how Crisler handled himself in this situation is a classic.

Undaunted by the battering he was taking from Keck, Crisler pretended complete innocence of the fact that he was playing against the great one.

"Where the heck is Keck?" Crisler would ask his opponent after each play. "Why doesn't your coach use him?"

He spiced this line of chatter with: "Say, I'll let you take me out on several plays so you'll look good. Your coach will notice you and maybe he won't send Keck in to take your place."

Keck was completely taken in with this chatter, and as the game wore on, he was soundly outplayed by the lighter and more inexperienced Crisler because of the latter's jockeying ability, quick wit and incessant needling.

Cuff Notes: The three U. P. basketball champions, Bessemer, Ontonagon and Mass, took a record of 53 victories and five defeats this season into quarterfinal play in Lower Michigan. . . . Mike's Bar made Gold Medal Class B fans sit up and take notice in Hermansville when they beat Iron Mountain handily in a first round game, 66-43. . . . In that encounter, Don Scott made 20 points and Bob Dufour 13. . . . The league Cub family really outdid itself this year in getting out a 1948 Cub Yearbook. . . . If you're a Cub fan, you'll probably find this 48-page piece well worth the 50 centavos they're asking. . . . It contains such items as complete history of the club back to 1876, life time averages of all Cubs, personal data about each player, a special Hall of Fame section, a record section and the story of the Cubs' farm system.

Jake Kramer Way Ahead; Riggs Tired

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, March 19 (AP)—When William Howard Taft was president of Yale, the authorities constructed double seats at Woolsey hall and the baseball field to accommodate the prexy's ample frame. . . . They haven't been used since then, to the great sorrow of Connecticut Yankees, who hate to see anything go to waste. . . . The Eli's new toothball coach, Herman Hickman, probably will find them just the thing. . . . reports from the southwest say the reason big Jake Kramer is pulling so far ahead of little Bobby Riggs in their pro tennis tour is that Bobby is plumb tired out. Riggs just isn't big and strong enough to take those nightly matches with long drives in between. . . . Byron Boli, regarded as the best prep football center ever developed in Chicago, is headed for Notre Dame. Where else?

Many A Slip

Bobby Hogue, the Braves' Round rookie pitcher, claims to be the only pitcher who ever played a bunt into a three base hit. . . . Bobby was playing on a rain-wet field in Asheville, N. C., a few years ago when an opponent bunted. . . . Hogue raced over and grabbed the ball, then skidded on the clay and slid clear under the bench. . . . before he could crawl out and throw, the runner was on third, but since Hogue had held onto the ball, it couldn't be scored as an error.

One-Minute Sport Page

Although the Cardinals' Eddie Dyer admits he's a bit concerned about the advancing age of his stars, he points out that what hurt the Cards last year was injuries to comparatively young guys like Stan Musial and Howie Pollet. . . . But Eddie gives their ages as 25 and 24, which is knocking a couple of years off what's listed in the Cards' roster. . . . Kentucky's Ralph Beard will be presented a trophy tonight by True magazine as the outstanding basketball player of the year—unless a lot of coaches changed their votes after watching Ed Macauley perform for St. Louis in the invitation tourney final. . . . ## Dartmouth Sextet Tips Colorado, 8-4, In College Hockey

Colorado Springs, March 19 (AP)—Dartmouth's resilient Indians will battle for the National Collegiate Hockey title tomorrow night with either Michigan or Boston college as the foe standing in their way.

The Ivy league champions, paced in a fierce last period offensive by the Riley brothers, knocked out Colorado college 8-4 last night before 2,500 in the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

Tonight the second act in the NCAA's first hockey tournament will offer Michigan against Boston at 8:15 (MST).

Michigan is highly rated because of its seasonal record of 18 wins, one tie and two defeats, but the Eagles came west on the crest of a nine game winning streak and seem full of fight.

Several Marinette boxers will compete at Manistique Monday night in the annual Manistique Lions club spring boxing show, along with battlers from Manistique, Escanaba and Rock.

Tigers Nurse Many Ailments As Boston Braves Win, 6 to 4

Lakeland, Fla., March 19 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers today were up against a siege of minor assorted ailments that extended all the way to Manager Steve O'Neill. O'Neill came down with the Tigers went to Bradenton and took a 6-4 beating from the Boston Braves, their sixth exhibition game loss as against four wins. O'Neill planned to be back in the dugout here today when the Tigers square off against the Cincinnati Reds for the second time with Hal Newhouser doing the pitching.

Sidelined with O'Neill yesterday was Outfielder Vic Wertz, who sprained his ankle sliding in with an inside-the-park homer Wednesday. He may be on the shelf for several days.

Catcher Bob Swift was expected to be back in uniform for the first time since he came down with a throat infection Monday. Three or four others of the 34-man Tiger group were nursing sore arms.

Bowlers from 5 States Hit ABC

Detroit, March 19 (AP)—Bowlers from five states will take a crack at existing records in the American Bowling Congress tournament today as "regular" squads resume firing in the 80-day tourney.

"Regular" teams from Ohio, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan were listed to take to the alleys after two squads of "boosters" roll early in the day.

Only one minor change occurred in the tournament yesterday, as a 25-year-old newcomer from Sylvania, O. rolled 663 to take over the No. 9 spot in singles competition. It was Bob Conrad's first national competition. However, chief topic of discussion in the big State Coliseum, scene of the ABC, was the Buddy Bomar case.

Bomar, a member of the world champion Kathryn Bowling team of Chicago, was given a six months suspension and fined $500 by the Bowling Proprietors Association here yesterday.
